

LONDON BLACK HISTORY COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Invites you to join our fundraiser on Saturday February 21, 2015 at the Grand Theatre

Orchestra row tickets are $50 (regularly $80) and include a reception (cash bar) and fashion exhibit by Laurent House of Fashion immediately following the play.

To purchase tickets or for more info contact:

Carl Cadogan at clcadogan@hotmail.com (519) 670-4875

Christina Lord at clord3@uwo.ca (519)850-9997

or The Congress of Black Women, London Chapter toni.lord@bell.net

In this multi-award-winning play set in New York City in 1905, we meet Esther, an African American seamstress, who sews exquisite lingerie for clients ranging from wealthy white patrons to ladies of the night. As each year passes, she saves every penny in the hopes of one day opening a beauty salon for other African American women. Although fiercely determined, she still longs for a husband and a future. When she begins receiving beautiful letters from a mysterious Caribbean man, it seems life just might take a different course. Love and betrayal are woven into the fabric of this period drama about independence and the dauntless pursuit of a dream.