

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Lewis Coray “Trailblazer Award” for Youth

On February 3, 2015 the London Police Service will host its 4th annual Black History Month event at police headquarters. The Lewis Coray “Trailblazer Award” will be presented to the winner of the black history month high-school essay competition.

Sgt. Marcel Marcellin will be celebrated for his work as Diversity Officer.

Our guest speaker is His Honourable Justice Donald McLeod.

Join us to celebrate diversity and support youth achievement.

London Police Service
601 Dundas Street
London, ON
Classrooms A, B and C

Event Start: 6:00pm
Youth Awards: 7:00pm
Hors d'Oeuvres: 7:30pm

This event is free and open to the public.
For information contact: Theresa Allott, Diversity Officer diversityofficer@police.london.ca

